PRIVACY POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

This privacy policy sets out the way Zero Limits WAP process your personal information. It deals with how we collect information, what we do with it, how we protect it and what controls or rights you have.

By continuing or becoming a service user or volunteer of Zero Limits WAP or interacting with us in any way, you are accepting and consenting to the practices described in this policy.

We may change this policy from time to time. The date this policy was last updated is shown at the beginning of this document.

We are committed to protecting the privacy of anyone who interacts with us, our service users, and supporters and will treat all information you give us with care.

We promise to:

- Tell you why we collect personal information, how we do this and what we use it for.
- Only collect the information we need to deliver the service to you.
- Keep the personal information up to date and ensure it is safe and secure.

Please read this Privacy Policy carefully to understand how we process your personal data. By providing your personal data to us or by using our services or this website you are accepting or consenting to the practices in this Privacy Policy.

As a data controller, we fully comply with the Data Protection Act 2018, the Privacy and Electronic Communications Regulations 2003 and the UK General Data Protection Regulations (UKGDPR) and the Data (Use and Access) Act 2025. We will also comply with all applicable clinical confidentiality guidelines.

We are recorded on the ICO Data Protection Register under registration number ZB350988

6. HOW WE USE THE INFORMATION AND WHY WE NEED IT

We use the personal information to provide the products or services and to meet our contractual commitments to you. This may include:

- Processing – this will include using the information to fulfil any request made by you or someone on your behalf to receive our services or receive an email newsletter.
- Contract – if we have a contract with you, we will process your personal information to fulfil that contract
- Consent – generally we will only ask for your consent to process your personal information if there is no other legal ground to process. Where we need your consent, we will ensure you are as fully informed as possible and use that consent solely for the reason you have given it to us. You will be able to change your mind at any time by contacting us at the address in paragraph [15]. Any direct marketing email or text to you will have a link to let you do so.
- Necessary to defend legal claims or a court action.
- Vital interests – where it is necessary to protect your vital interests or those of another person.
- Employment – when necessary to fulfil our duties under employment law.
- Public interest – this is usually in line with any applicable laws such as protecting against dishonesty, malpractice or other seriously improper behaviour.
- Information you have made public.
- Marketing – in addition to processing we will use your personal information to provide you with information about products and services you have requested or would reasonably expect to receive from us. You will be able to change your mind at any time and we will keep your preferences up to date. Any email or text to you about marketing will have a link to let you unsubscribe.
- Automatic decision and Profiling – we may make use of automatic decision making and profiling and screening methods to provide a better service to service users. Automatic decision making assists us to deliver more effective services. Profiling helps us target resources more effectively through gaining an insight into the background of service users and helping us build relationships that are appropriate to their interests. The use of automatic decision making or profiling will not result in a denial of services.

7. LEGITIMATE INTERESTS

Zero Limits WAP also processes your data when it is in our legitimate interest to do this and when these interests do not override your rights. These legitimate interests include: -

- Sharing information when requested by another organisation because they need it for their public task or official function.
- Sharing information when required for national security, to protect public security or for defence.

Where a third-party data processor is used, we ensure they operate under a contract which includes confidentiality and security of personal data and their obligations under the Data Protection legislation.

9. SECURITY

The security of your personal information is very important to us. We protect all personal data we hold and ensure we have appropriate organisational and technical measures in place to prevent unauthorised access or unlawful processing of personal data and to prevent data being lost, destroyed or damaged.

All information you provide to us is stored on our secure servers or on hard copy files kept in locked cabinets.

Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we will do our best to protect your personal data, we cannot guarantee the security of your data transmitted to our site; any transmission is at your own risk. Once we have received your information, we will use strict procedures and security features to try to prevent unauthorised access.

All the personal data is processed in the UK however for IT hosting and maintenance your information may be situated outside the European Economic Area (EEA).

10. YOUR RIGHTS

You have the following rights:

- Transparency over how we use your personal information (right to be informed).
- To request a copy of the personal information we hold about you, which will be provided to you within one month (right of access).
- An update or amendment of the personal information we hold about you (right of rectification).
- To ask us to stop using personal information (right to restrict processing).
- Ask us to remove your personal information from our records (right to be forgotten).
- Request us to remove your personal information for marketing purposes (right to object).
- To obtain and reuse your personal data for your own purposes (right to portability).
- Not to be subject to a decision based on automated processing.

You can contact to us about any of these rights at the address in paragraph [15]. To protect your privacy, we may ask you to prove your identity before we agree to respond to any request. There is no charge for a request, and we will respond to the request within one month.

If you are not satisfied with the way in which we deal with your request, you can contact the Information Commissioners Office on 0303 123 1113 or at their website www.ico.org.uk.

11. COMPLAINTS

You can make a data protection complaint about the way in which we have handled your personal information. You can do this by contacting us at the address in paragraph [15]. On receipt of your complaint we will:

- Acknowledge your complaint within 30 days.
- If necessary ask you for information to confirm your identity or for more information about the complaint.
- Make appropriate enquiries or investigation about the complaint you have raised.
- Inform you of our enquiries and response to your complaint.

12. COOKIES

Our website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our website and allows us to improve our site. By continuing to browse the site, you are agreeing to our use of cookies.

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer if you agree. Cookies contain information that is transferred to your computer's hard drive. We use the following cookies:

- Strictly necessary cookies. These are cookies that are required for the operation of our website. They include, for example, cookies that enable you to log into secure areas of our website, use a shopping cart or make use of e-billing services.
- Analytical/performance cookies. These allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.

- Functionality cookies. These are used to recognise you when you return to our website. This enables us to personalise our content for you, greet you by name and remember your preferences (for example, your choice of language or region).
- Targeting cookies. These cookies record your visit to our website, the pages you have visited and the links you have followed. We will use this information to make our website and the advertising displayed on it more relevant to your interests. We may also share this information with third parties for this purpose.

13. RETENTION OF INFORMATION

We hold your information only for as long as necessary for each purpose we use it. We use the following guidelines: -

- Any time limits set by law or recommended by regulators professional bodies or associations.
- Time limits for making a claim.
- For as long as we have a reasonable need for managing our relationship with you or running our organisation.

14. CCTV
